Dear St. Charles Families,

Tonight's the night! Please have your children seated by 6:20 PM so we can begin the performance at 6:30 PM. This show is well worth whatever you have to arrange to have you and your child(ren) in attendance. This is probably the final time that Charlie and The Chargers will take the stage together. Let's make it count!

Conferences and Floor Hockey are over, and in case you were wondering, we're probably going to try to have those events separate in the future. The staff here is certainly ready for a break.

A big thank you to all of those who took care of dinners for the faculty and those who donated funds for the meals during conferences. We were well fed!

Thank you to all of the volunteers who stood boldly behind the concession stand and persevered through the long lines and trails of popcorn! Kirsten Kavanaugh will be hanging up her concessions hat after leading this venture for a number of years. We're very grateful to Kirsten for her service. Congratulations and thank you to Toni McWilliams who is going through training right now to be her successor.

Let's embrace the break coming in the week ahead to recharge and have some family time. We'll be back to hit it hard for the 3rd trimester starting March 27th. The third trimester is the fastest by far, so stay tuned!

God bless you, Chargers!
